

April 29, 1941.

Lt. Col. Alexander R. Davis,
Hdqts. 372nd Infantry(Rifle)
Office of the Regimental Commander,
Fort Dix, N. J.

Dear Colonel:

In your last letter to me, you said you would be able to give the final figures on the number of men who will attend the ball game on Monday, May 5th. I have decided that it would probably be a good thing for me to make a trip to Fort Dix on that day and go over all final plans with you. I am sure everything will be arranged by that time.

Kindly let me know what hour would be convenient for you to see me. I would prefer the afternoon around 3 or 4 O'clock, but will come whatever time it would be convenient to you. Our plans are progressing nicely and I really feel we are going to have a very pleasant day.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ